Refinancing Your Mortgage

The decision to refinance your home is dependent on many things, including how long you plan to be in the house, how much lower the interest rate will be on your new loan, the closing costs for the new loan, your equity position in the home, and whether you plan to do a cash-out refinancing.

When refinancing, you're trying to take advantage of lower interest rates to lower your monthly payments.

To take advantage of a lower rate you'll have to close on a new loan and pay the closing costs associated with that loan.

That's true even if you opt for a no-cash or low-cash closing. With a no-cash or low-cash closing, the costs are still there, they're just paid for with either a higher interest rate or are included in the principal balance of the loan.

If you don't plan on being in the house very long, then the lower payments associated with refinancing won't cover these closing costs.

Don't worry about the points you paid at closing on your current loan when you're considering refinancing.

They aren't relevant to the analysis because they're sunk costs. Look instead at what you can save going forward.

Compare annual percentage rates (APRs) when deciding between loans.

The APR adjusts the mortgage interest rate to reflect estimated closing costs, including points paid at closing and mortgage insurance. APRs aren't perfect, since closing costs are estimated and the lender can round off by up to a quarter percent.

It may be easier and less expensive for your existing lender to refinance your home.

After all, they know your payment history and they know the property. Your existing lender may not require a new property appraisal, title search or other items that would normally be required on a new loan, saving you even more money. But before contacting your lender, you need to be sure that its rate is competitive.

Shop rates in your market before making a final decision. Keep in mind that you would rather refinance once and lower your interest rate by a point, or more, than do multiple refinancings for smaller interest rate savings. ###

Lions Hold Picnic Meeting at Woodland Park

On Tuesday, October 10, the Hasbrouck Heights Lions Club held their regular meeting in Woodland Park. Lion Tom King was the chef, serving grilled steaks, hamburgers and hot dogs.

Lion Tom Mason recalled his uncle, Lion James W. Mason's thoughts about Woodland Park:

"The history of Woodland Park is that the borough owned all but 22 lots of the entire tract as we know it today.

The Lions Club of Hasbrouck Heights, with the approval and understanding of the Mayor and Council, started an effort to acquire all the said lots for the purpose of a Borough park.

Lion Chris Heller donated, and deeded to the Borough, four lots on September 4, 1951. Lion Bob Rafford, then the Borough Clerk, advised the Club of ownership of lots not owned by the Borough.

Through Rafford, Heller and other Lions, lands were acquired by paying off tax liens, outright solicited gifts, etc., until the tract was complete, which came about in the 1954-1955 time frame.

Further discussions between Lion members and the Mayor and Council outlined the intent and future use.

The Lions Club installed a comfort station. An area was cleared for a field to be used as an all-purpose area for picnics, games, etc.

Under the supervision of Lion Joseph Torre, the Lions Club erected the pavilion as we know it today. Both the comfort station, pavilion and cost of some land acquisition were donated by the Lions.

The Mayor and Council built one large stone barbecue, several small stoke fireplaces, picnic benches and provided support labor for clearing and maintenance.

These improvements were completed in the 1955 time frame. These were the only improvements to be made for the original concept. The balance of acreage was to be left wooded, to be utilized by Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, nature lovers, tree buffs and the like in its pristine state."

And so stated Lion James W. Mason in 1997. ###

Heights Seniors Visit Vermont

Fifty-two members of the Leisure Club traveled to Vermont this year for a four day vacation. What they received was more than they expected.

The trip was advertised as an opportunity to view the arrival of autumn. Vacationers were there to witness the spectacular displays of fall colors as the trees lost their leaves for the winter.

However, autumn was in no rush to arrive. A majority of the trees were still green; and the few that had already started their transition were a sight for the eyes. But Vermont would not disappoint the travelers.

Vermont is the first state to be admitted to the Union after the War for Independence; the 14th state. Its name was taken from the French words, "vert mont" which means "green mountains."

Vermont wanted to make this vacation for the Leisure Club a trip they would never forget; and they succeeded.

The members stayed at a lodge in Killington which is located in the center of the Green Mountain region; it is a popular ski resort. From this base, the Hasbrouck Heights visitors traveled throughout the state.

They visited a maple sugar farm. There they learned first hand how maple sap is extracted from trees and they were shown how syrup is made. They also learned about the different grades of syrup; and were treated to a "Maple Cree-mee," a maple-flavored soft ice cream. It was delicious.

A visit to Ben & Jerry's Ice Cream Factory for a guided tour was next. There they learned about the ice cream production process and how two childhood friends turned a $5 correspondence course on ice cream-making into a very successful business. The tour ended in the Flavor Room where the group enjoyed a scoop of the sample of the day--apple pie.

A fabulous luncheon buffet at the Von Trapp Family Lodge was the highlight of one day. There in the 2,700 acre resort, with sweeping mountain views, was the Austrian-styled Main Lodge for dining. The ultimate nostalgia of "The Sound of Music" was apparent everywhere. Also on the grounds were the graves of Maria and the Baron.

A tour of the Mendon Apple Orchard & Cider Mill gave the tourists an idea of how cider is made the old-fashioned way. There we were treated to apple cider, apple turnovers and apples.

But the special treat was that we met and talked with Millie Gaito, who years before she retired, worked at Hasbrouck Heights High School as a librarian. Millie and her husband own the apple orchard.

There was so much to see and visit. We visited the state capital, Montpelier, which is the nation's smallest state capital.

There at the entrance was a statue of Ethan Allen. On the first floor was a bust of Abraham Lincoln created by Larkin Mead. He used this as a prelude to the bronze statue of Lincoln that he made for the Lincoln Tomb in Springfield, Illinois.

The group visited the Vermont Teddy Bear factory and learned first hand how the bears are made. Next they visited the world's largest marble exhibit.

There they viewed many outstanding sculptures and also had the opportunity to partake in wine tasting.

On their return trip home they stopped at the Yankee Candle Company in Massachusetts. They not only had a chance to purchase candles at reasonable prices, but also were treated to a demonstration on how candles are made.

The evenings were filled with entertainment, too. The first night, after a complete dinner at their lodge, they traveled to the Killington Events Hall and were entertained by magician, Tom Joyce, who used some of the members from our group in his act (Rose Berardo and Anita Krieger). On another evening, at a dinner at the Swiss Farm Inn, we were entertained by the singing of Adam Rosenberg.

The one thing that seems to stand out with this trip is the dry humor that the people who live there enjoy.

One example: As we were passing a cemetery, our guide pointed out that all the people buried there died of emphysema. Someone asked how she knew that. She answered "because they're all in their coffin."

Another example: What do you call a cow after it has given birth? Answer--decaffeinated. Still another example; why does the stool you sit on when milking a cow have only three legs? Answer--because the cow has the udder.

After hearing all this type of humor, we seem to appreciate the jokes of Nick Schiro. Story and photos by Marie and Peter Gallo Jr. ###

Seniors Learn About Reverse Mortgages

By Peter Gallo Jr.

The October meeting of the Leisure Club was packed with unexpected treats. There was a delicious hot meal (sausages and onions, ziti, meatballs, and salads), catered by Mucci's Italian Market in Saddle Brook and music provided by DJ Chris.

The food and music were donated by Ron Kistner. Throughout the year many individuals, businesses and organizations provide refreshments for our meetings. We thank them all and accept them graciously.

The program at the meeting was, "Reverse Mortgages." Reverse mortgage specialist, Peter Peterson, used his knowledge and experience to explain clearly how it works.

In a few words, the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) created the HUD's Reverse Mortgage.

It is a federally-insured private loan, and it's a safe plan that can give older Americans greater financial security.

Many seniors use it to supplement Social Security, meet unexpected medical expenses, and make home improvements and more.

A reverse mortgage enables older homeowners (62+) to convert part of the equity in their homes into tax-free income without having to sell the home, give up title, or take on a new monthly mortgage payment.

The reverse mortgage is aptly named because the payments stream in "reverse." Instead of making monthly payments to a lender, as with a regular mortgage, a lender makes payments to you.

The amount of money you get from a reverse mortgage depends upon your age, appraised home value, current interest rates and the lending limit in your area.

When you sell your home, or no longer use it for your primary residence, you or your estate will repay the cash you received from the reverse mortgage, plus interest and any fees, to the lender.

The information given here is only an overview of this program. Interested parties should contact a reverse mortgage specialist for help. ###

Heights Vet Offers Autumn Pet Care Tips

The Hasbrouck Heights Oradell Veterinary Group, located at 343 Boulevard, suggests that you watch out for family pets as you prepare for the cold, festive days of fall.

- Many brands of antifreeze are highly toxic. Store new and used antifreeze in a sealed container.

- Chocolate is a special treat, but it is toxic to dogs, cats and birds.

- Holiday meals can be hazardous to pets. Chicken and turkey bones can get stuck and pierce the digestive tract. Rich foods can cause pancreatitis or bloating.

- Indoor pets not acclimated to winter temperatures should not be outside in cold weather for long periods.

Outdoor pets can withstand fairly cold temperatures, but make sure they have proper shelter from wind and rain and provide them with good bedding. Frostbite is a winter hazard to pets. ###

The Leisure Club welcomes all Senior Citizens who live in Hasbrouck Heights and are 60 years of age or older. Annual membership is $12 per year.

“Suzie’s Ques”

Practical Tips for a Healthier You

Gobble Gobble Gobble! Any turkey lovers out there neighbors? This is the season for turkey, stuffing, sweet potatoes, cranberry sauce and sweet treats.

For some of us, we can perhaps enjoy a 4-day week-end of family, fun, friends, and football. The weather may be brisk outside, but our homes are filled with the warmth of the holidays.

I hope you have been keeping up your exercise and nutrition programs and are feeling better than ever. Just because one of the biggest meals of the year is upon us does not mean we have to give up our health and fitness goals.

Did you ever wonder why you feel so sleepy after eating that big Thanksgiving meal?

Well, I've done some research and the evidence is clear. Turkey contains a high level of the amino acid, tryptophan, which the brain changes into serotonin, giving the body a natural calming effect.

This makes us feel sleepy. It's no wonder that doctors recommend a warm glass of milk before retiring to the bedroom for a good night's sleep!

Turkey is a good source of protein, but eating too much on turkey day may leave you feeling tired and lethargic.

Nutrition experts and scientists believe that another reason you may feel sleepy after your Thanksgiving feast is because of all those carbohydrates you ate.

Carbohydrates are found in starchy and sugar-containing foods like breads, yams, potatoes, pumpkin pie, and other yummy Thanksgiving desserts.

Blood flow goes to the stomach to help digestion, so there is less blood flow to the brain. Immediately following dinner, we may feel like retiring to the comforts of the couch or recliner chair.

However, that may not be the healthiest thing to do right after a big meal.

*So just how do you avoid that sleepy feeling on Turkey Day?

- Eat small, healthy meals (try to limit junk foods) throughout the day before you sit down for your big meal - don't starve yourself in anticipation of the feast to come.

- Have small portions of foods that are part of your Thanksgiving meal (including whatever veggies are on the table). Try not to take in too many carbohydrates.

- Drink water and take breaks while you are eating to see how full you've become.

- Stop eating once you're full - there will always be leftovers tomorrow!

- Finally, take a walk outside afterward to digest your meal. This will make you feel better than crashing on the couch.

HHFD EMS Offers Autumn Yard Work Tips

The Hasbrouck Heights Fire Department EMS offers these safety tips for tackling autumn tasks around your home.

- When lifting heavy bags of mulch, use a wheelbarrow when possible, and remember to lift with your legs, not with your back.

- Be careful when pruning. Pruning from a ladder is especially dangerous.

- To avoid blisters when doing yard work, wear gloves.

- If you are doing a lot of raking, try an ergonomic rake, which can be found at most hardware stores and garden centers. ###

5K Walk for Dyslexic Children

The 32nd Masonic Learning Center for Children, located at 301 Division Avenue, held its 3rd Annual Hasbrouck Heights 5K Walk to Help Dyslexic Children on Saturday, October 14 at 10:00 a.m. at Depken Field (Franklin & Route 17).

Registration was $15 Adults/$5 children under 12. Walkers received a "T" shirt. Refreshments were available.

Proceeds go directly to the cost of training tutors and tutoring children.

The Masonic Learning Centers for Children has taken the lead nationally in tutoring children with dyslexia at no cost. The learning centers are open to all children regardless of economic status, race, religion, or Masonic affiliation. There are 43 centers in 14 states.

Dyslexia is an inherited neurological disorder that affects the way people learn to read and speak as well as how they process things mathematically. Some of the world's most famous artists, innovators and leaders were and are dyslexic, including Leonardo da Vinci, Albert Einstein, Thomas Edison, Agatha Christie, William Hewlitt, Winston Churchill, Tom Cruise, Cher, Jay Leno, and Charles Schwab.

Dyslexia affects one out of every five people, and affects boys and girls in equal numbers. Children left with untreated dyslexia often suffer devastating personal consequences. It's the number one reason teenagers drop out of school, and is a primary factor in juvenile delinquency.

Dyslexia is, however, a treatable condition. Children with dyslexia need professional help, and the earlier they receive it, the greater their chances of achieving normal, fully functional lives.

Event chairs were Judy Beasley and John R. Schulze. Call 973-694-8976 for more information. ###

Corpus Christi School Families Get Ready for Activity-Filled November

by Sonya Buckman

Corpus Christi School had a busy October schedule. The Fire Department's visit, Student Council Induction, the 8th Grade's Afternoon Rosary and Tea with the Rosary Society, the Kindergarten's always-popular trip to Abma's Farm for pumpkin picking and the 8th Grade Chapel Concert at Don Bosco, led the students into the heart of school year.

Many activities surrounding academics and fun for students and parents are planned throughout the month of November.

As is tradition, on November 1st, the Third Grade class participates in the All Saints Day Mass and Procession.

The children pick a saint that they want to learn about, do the research on that saint including the clothing they would have worn and come to the Mass dressed accordingly. As part of the procession they then say a few words to the parish about "their" saint.

November 2nd provides new parents a chance to get a "Preview" of Corpus Christi School prior to the formal "Open House" at the end of January.

A personal tour throughout the buildings gives families the opportunity to ask questions about all of the PreK3-Grade 8 programs. Tours will be conducted from 9:00 a.m. to 11:00 a.m. and 1:00 p.m. to 2:30 p.m. For more information about Preview Day, please call the school office at 201-288-0614.

The first Pizza Night social for the Middle School students will be held on November 3rd.

This fun evening helps to break up the anxiety in anticipation of the COOP Exam that the 8th graders will be taking on November 10th.

This test, along with their middle school grades, will assist them in getting into the Catholic high school of their choice.

The Thanksgiving Prayer Service will take place on November 22nd which then starts the Thanksgiving Recess.

The Christmas spirit will start after this break with an evening with friends and family at Corpus Christi School's "Wish List" Tricky Tray on December 1st. For tickets call Cheryl at 201-370-0107. ###

A Visit to A Fresh Affair

By Justin Watrel

When customers talk of an innovative restaurant scene in Bergen County, the assumption is that they are talking about new restaurants that are opening in the down town areas of Ridgewood, Westwood and most recently, Rutherford. Quietly though, Hasbrouck Heights has opened its share of new restaurants, catering to all sorts of palates.

Our latest restaurant, A Fresh Affair, opened this Father's Day, turning this quiet corner of Terrace Avenue into a dining destination.

A Fresh Affair is the creation of Hasbrouck Heights residents, Joseph and Kathryn Manginelli, who opened the café-style restaurant in what was once the Brownstone Luncheonette.

"When we first opened," Joseph explained, "we had a lot of people that remembered the old restaurant and shared memories of the meals there."

One older gentleman told us how he ate at the counter when he was a little boy. We didn't realize what a long history the former luncheonette had in the town."

Joseph Manginelli was born in Brooklyn and raised on Staten Island and later moved to Elmont, Long Island, where he worked for the TWA flight kitchen. "I started in the flight kitchen in 1977 and worked my way up in the operations to manager of Ground Operations for Food & Beverage. When TWA's financial condition deteriorated, I decided to look for something new."

Graduating from the Chubb Institute, he switched careers and worked as a computer programmer with IBM. After a few years with IBM, the commute got to be too much and he decided he wanted to go back to his first love and start a catering business.

Kathryn Manginelli was born and raised in the town of Elmont, Long Island. She is a graduate of Bergen Community College with an AS in Business Management. She works as a legal secretary for a patent & trademark firm in New York City.

The couple has a blended family of three children. Matthew, currently attends Bergen Tech, specializing in Digital Technology, Joseph works for New Cal Aviation at Teterboro Airport, and Theresa, who lives and works in upstate New York with her own family and the couple's grandchild.

"Our meeting was like in the movie, 'You've Got Mail', Joseph laughed. "We met on line in 1995 just as the Internet was taking off." "I logged on and said, 'Hi neighbor', Kathryn added. "It was nice to meet someone from the same town."

After the couple was married, they found a house on Washington Place. "We really fell in love with the house and our neighborhood. It was exactly what we were looking for," Kathryn said.

The day after they closed on the house and were ready to move in, there was an accident a few houses away. "A new neighbor of ours called us and told us that a plane crashed in the town, only a half-block away. After we moved in, the municipal building burned. We found it an interesting town to move into," Joseph said.

Joseph explained, "I'd had enough with the commuting and felt it was time for a change. I wanted to get back into catering and was trying to find a location to start the business. That's when the Brownstone came up on the market and I felt it would be a good location."

The restaurant closed several months earlier. It was vacant and due for a lot of work. "You should have seen the amount of work we had to do to the place," Joseph said. "It was a big effort." The restaurant now has a country Tuscan décor to it and is done in green and orange, with a homey feel to it. Its menu is Continental with an Italian twist that features daily specials."

"Our opening day was Father's Day," Joseph said. "We advertised heavily with 'take your father out to dinner'. I was by myself in the restaurant and our first table was a group of eight. They came in and ordered practically everything on the menu. It was just crazy. All I know was that they had a good time and they never knew how busy I was in the kitchen."

"We also had a group of German tourists that somehow found the restaurant one night," Kathryn said. "I don't know how they found us, but we had a lot of fun entertaining them. Afterward when they wanted to walk back to the hotel, we helped them get the shuttle back to the Holiday Inn."

"We try to have a variety of food selections on our menu," Joseph explained. "We also like to try new dishes as specials. Some of our most popular items are our Eggplant Rollatini, and Shrimp a la Fresh Affair, which is prepared with shrimp and asparagus tips in a creamy scampi sauce on a bed of capellini, and chicken with a wild mushroom sauce, that is prepared in a light wine and mushroom sauce. These have been extremely popular since we opened." The menu also has popular items such as lamb chops, New York Strip Steak, baby back ribs and a mega burger platter. There is also a special children's menu with many favorites for the younger clientele.

There is also an array of items on the dessert menu. "We have an older clientele who see things on our dessert menu that they haven't seen in years," Kathryn explained. "We added Tortoni, Spumoni and Tartufo to our menu. Customers really enjoy ordering things that they haven't had in years. It brings back a lot of memories for them."

"Even though I am working now almost 14 to 16 hours a day, I find it more enjoyable to work in a job I love," Joseph explained. "I like the fact that I can cook a meal, serve it and then be able to walk out into the dining room and talk to the people I am serving. I find it very rewarding. We have put a lot of time into this restaurant and we work to welcome our neighbors to our establishment."

Kathryn said. "I'm getting to meet more people from the town who had once been just a nod in passing. We feel that we are making an investment in the town".

A Fresh Affair is open from 4:00 p.m. to 10:00 p.m. every Wednesday to Sunday and also does off-premises catering. There is seating for 30 at the tables and 10 at the counter.

You can see the menu posted on the web at: www.afreshaffair.com. We wish the Manginellis the best of luck with their new establishment. And, for a wonderful meal in a relaxed environment, A Fresh Affair is a nice addition to our restaurant scene.

Contemporary Club News

The Contemporary Club of Hasbrouck Heights began the new club year with a salad supper at the Holy Trinity Lutheran Church on Tuesday, September 26th.

The first speaker of the night was, Amanda DeLorenzo, who the club had sponsored to go to Girls Career Institute.

Amanda captivated the membership with stories about her experiences at the institute and how this would help her achieve her dreams.

The Board and the membership wished her well in all her future endeavors. The second speaker was from the Hasbrouck Heights Fire Department who addressed the membership regarding Fire Prevention Week.

The Education Department noted that the Epsilon Sigma Omicron is an honorary educational society open to all federated club members.

This society promotes the continual education of its membership through the reading of approved books.

The Hasbrouck Heights Library is keeping a copy of the list so that members can readily find the books that are required reading for this society. It was also noted that College Day at Douglass College was October 14, 2006.

The state project for all New Jersey State Federated Women's Clubs is twofold this year. The first part of the project is the rehabilitation of the headquarters building and the second part is aid to victims of domestic violence.

The club will be donating money to headquarters by raising $5.05 for each club member. Activities to aid those who are victims of domestic violence were discussed and the club will be doing the activities in the future.

The club is planning a bus ride to Atlantic City-Trump Plaza Casino on Thursday, November 16th. The cost is $30 per person with a $5 food voucher and $25 in coin. Call Marge at 201 288-8933.

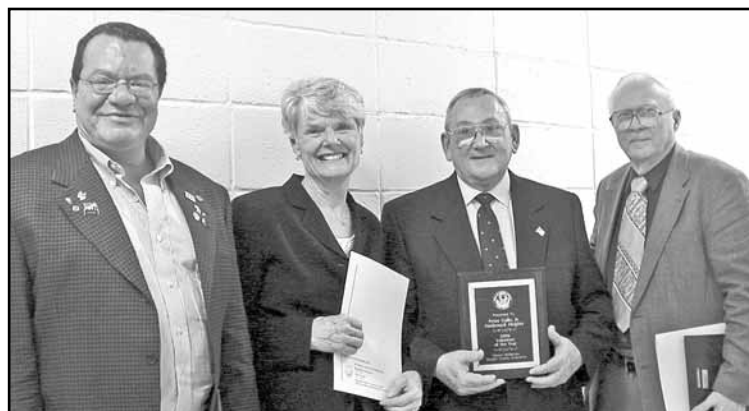

The speaker for the October meeting was Ray Vorisek from Heights Flower Shoppe, who spoke about taking your plants indoors for the winter.

At the November meeting the members will be decorating hats and filling Christmas stockings for children who will be spending the holidays in local hospitals. ###

Past Faithful Navigator, George Di Costanzo, presents Knight of the Year Award to Past Faithful Navigator Peter J. Gallo Jr.

Knight of The Year

Peter J. Gallo Jr. was honored by the Bishop O'Connor Assembly #0647 by being selected as "Sir Knight of the Year" (this is the first time this award has been given). Peter is presently the Grand Knight of St. Anthony Council #11585, based in Assumption Church, Wood-Ridge. Before he retired, he was chairman of the Hackensack High School Guidance Department for 27 years.

The assembly, which consists of ten councils located in Northern Bergen County, selected Peter because of his many years of service to his assembly, council, Church and community. He is a life member of the Knights of Columbus and a Past Faithful Navigator. He has been in charge of the annual fund raiser for the assembly for the past four years (raising more than $11,000 during that period); has organized a "Remembrance Mass" for deceased members of the Fourth Degree; and has held many offices in the assembly.

In his council, Peter has served as Financial Secretary for eight years; has edited and sent out newsletters; has assisted on many of the fund raisers; and has been in charge of the "Feed the Hungry" ribbon sale during Advent.

In his Church, Peter has been part of a team couple for the Pre-Cana Program for the last 16 years; has been a member of the Church Chorus for the past 19 years; and has been a mentor for the last three years for students making their Confirmation.

In his community, Peter is presently Vice-President of the Leisure Club and Vice-President of the Central Bergen Chapter 418 of AARP (where he and his wife, Marie, are in charge of the Food Drive, Toys for Tots and the Scholarship Drive). He is a member of the Board of Trustees of the Public Library and served as its past president. Peter is also an officer in the Kiwanis Club and the Republican Club. He recently served as neighborhood volunteer to raise funds for the "American Institute for Cancer Research" and the "Leukemia & Lymphoma Society." Peter drives seniors to medical appointments through the REACH program and is a past president of many organizations. ###

Honoring the Past -- Preparing for the Future

The Scouts, both Troop and Pack, of Hasbrouck Heights, showcased various aspects of the Scout Program to the community during Town Day 2006.

There were various Scout skills displayed to include camping (they stayed overnight), various forms of cooking, rope lashing, etc.

The theme for this year's Town Day was, "Honoring the Past -- Preparing for the Future."

The past was represented by a tepee on loan from Mr. Vijay Patel, a member of the Troop committee.

The cover is made of canvas and has a diameter of 10 feet. Some of the Scouts slept in the tepee over the weekend.

The American Indians of the Plains developed this cone-shaped tent. It has an outer cover and an inner lining which allowed the tepee to be cool in warm weather and comfortable in cold weather. Animal hides were used to make them water proof and wind proof.

The cone shape can withstand strong winds.

A fire could be built inside and the smoke is drawn up and out the top. The space between the liner and cover stored wood.

The Troop Seventeen geodesic dome served as a shelter for dining and as an exposition area.

It is 24' in diameter, 75' circumference and 452 sq. ft. floor area.

It is constructed with 165 struts made of thin wall electrical conduit that cost about $150, and fabricated with the efforts of Jim Taranto, Ed Rose, Jim Halloran, Tom Malin and Bill Rinaldi. It is covered with government surplus parachutes.

Plans for the dome were from a NASA project, "Advanced Structural Design Concepts for Future Space Missions."

The concept of geodesic structures was the brainchild of R. Buckminster Fuller, who held 11 patents on geodesic construction and structures.

Troop Seventeen was formed in 1987 and the dome was first used about 1989 at a Scout Camporee. ###

Teterboro Airport Holds Career Day

About 200 area Middle School students attended the First Annual Aviation Career and Education Expo on October 12, 2006 where they could discover the world of aviation.

Students were grouped into six tours, which rotated to several locations.

Fifty-nine students from the Hasbrouck Heights Middle School attended; registered at the Port Authority at 90 Moonachie Avenue and received an orientation. This included information of the various careers in aviation, salary range, education requirements, etc.

Their first stop was Port Authority's Emergency Services where they received an orientation of the equipment including: rescue, ARFF response truck that extended the snozzle and shot water and foam, and the PA helicopter.

The Port Authority Police demonstrated SWAT equipment which some of the students tried on.

The next stop was the Aviation Hall of Fame (AHOF), where Stephen Riethof gave a brief overview of NJ Aviation history followed by a nine minute movie.

The students went outside to explore the M.A.S.H. display and various aircraft, led by Robert Forsyth. They went into the Great Hall, where Shea Oakley led a tour of the main exhibits reflecting NJ Aviation history to include the Hindenberg accident at Lakehurst Naval Air Station on May 6, 1937.

The next stop was Fixed Base Operator (FBO) Jet Aviation. Susan Panos, Manager of Customer Support Services, gave the students a tour of the facility. Mr. Paul Engl, Director of Client & Customer Relations, gave a short talk on the history of FBO'S and Jet Aviation. Upon departing, every student was presented with a die-cast model collection of aircraft reflecting 100 years of flight by John Langevin, Senior VP/General Manager.

The next stop was the Exhibit Hall in the AIG hangar where students could talk with professionals in the aviation industry. These included: FAA, Avports (Teterboro Airport operations), Signature Flight Support (FBO), Teterboro School of Aeronautics, Department of Homeland Security, etc.

The Port Authority Aviation Maintenance Department exhibited various electrical devices, including runway lights, etc.

To demonstrate the power of their air conditioning equipment, using liquid nitrogen, they hooked up an ice cream machine, made some and distributed portions to the students.

Outside the hangar was a static display of aircraft, including the news helicopters.

Also displayed was the snow removal equipment used by the Airport.

The Expo concluded with lunch, where Susan Baer, Manager of Newark and Teterboro Airports, offered closing thoughts.

All of the students had previously written essays about how they thought "Aviation Makes the World a Smaller Place!" Awards were presented to the top three entries.

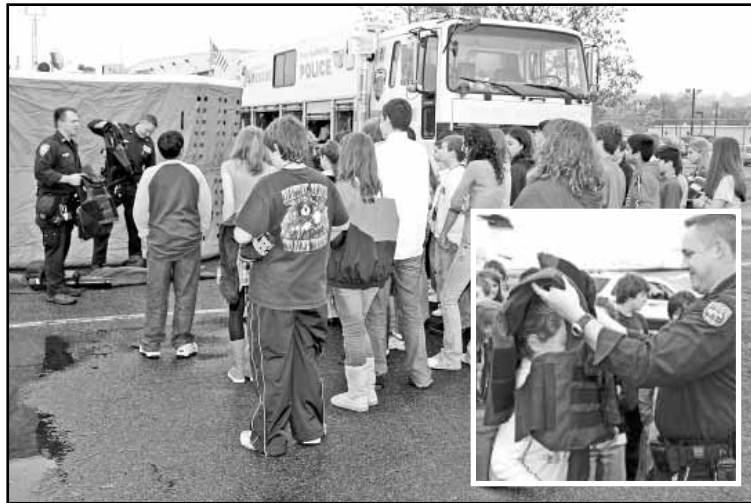

The Port Authority has conducted these expos at Newark Airport, where 2,000 students attend over two days. ###

Teterboro Airport Takes The Pledge

The Port Authority of New York and New Jersey, US Rep. Steve Rothman and officials representing the aviation, industry announced new flight policies affecting the 827 acre Teterboro Airport during a press conference on October 4, 2006.

Working as the Teterboro Airport Industry Working Group, they introduced a voluntary new paradigm for creating a safe, secure and quieter airport.

This Working Group is comprised of about 30 experienced aviation experts representing TEB's five fixed-based operators (FBO), airport users and tenants (to include Net Jets, Dassault Falcon, and AIG) and national and local aviation industry associations.

This is the first all-industry group to step forward voluntarily to work with its owners, the Port Authority and Congressman Steve Rothman, to address community concerns.

The Working Group has worked together for over one year and has identified five major recommendations that members of the Working Group pledge to implement.

Pledge 1: Not to operate Stage II aircraft at the airport. These older, noisier aircraft, which date back to the 1960's, will be redirected to other airports, such as Newark.

Pledge 2: Working Group operators will adopt a nighttime curfew at Teterboro. This curfew will be in effect between 11:00 p.m. and 6:00 a.m. The only exceptions will be "essential night operations."

Pledge 3: Working Group operators agree not to operate aircraft with an operating weight of more than 100,000 pounds at Teterboro at any time -- now or in the future.

Pledge 4: In partnership with the National Air Transportation Association (NATA) Safety 1st Program, Teterboro will establish an airport-wide SMS (Safety Management System), becoming the first non-commercial airport in the nation to do so.

All FBO's have agreed to participate in the NATA SMS for Ground Operations. All charter operators will be strongly encouraged to participate in the NATA SMS for Air Operators.

Pledge 5: All Working Group operators pledge to enhance and refine the security procedures already in place at Teterboro and support the airport in its ultimate goal of becoming the industry's security model for general aviation airports.

Teterboro Airport and its tenants will implement a program of aviation/airport security best practices, including Airport Watch, a partnership program of Aircraft Owners and Pilots Association (AOPA) and Transportation Security Administration (TSA), which is designed to secure general aviation airports.

The Port Authority is planning to install a $15 million dollar surveillance and perimeter intrusion alert system.

Working Group members will provide expertise and develop recommendations for TSA in an effort to continually upgrade security procedures applicable to the general aviation industry and general aviation operators utilizing Teterboro Airport including, but not limited to, security of aircraft, passenger, cargo and crew.

Those businesses signing the pledge represent about 50 percent of Teterboro operations.

Officials hope to raise the compliance rate to 90 percent by the end of 2007 as aircraft operators learn about the rules. FBO's would not refuse service for jets arriving after 11:00 p.m., but would let them know about the curfews for the future.

There are no penalties for violating the curfew or operating the loud jets. No legislation has been enacted to enforce the ban and nighttime curfew. ###

A PLEDGE TO THE COMMUNITY

PLEDGE #1: Working Group operators immediately agree not to operate Stage II aircraft at the airport.

PLEDGE #2: Working Group operators will adopt a nighttime curfew at TEB. This curfew will be in effect at the airport between the hours of 11 p.m. and 6 a.m. The only exceptions will be "essential night operations."

PLEDGE #3: Working Group operators agree not to operate aircraft having an operating weight of more than 100,000 pounds at Teterboro Airport at any time, now or in the future.

PLEDGE #4: In order to make TEB a model for the safest general aviation airport in the nation, a safety culture that makes the maintenance of an ongoing Safety Management System (SMS) the top priority of all users will be developed by members of the Working Group, in partnership with the National Air Transportation Association (NATA) Safety 1st Program. TEB will establish an airport-wide SMS, becoming the first non-commercial airport in the nation to do so. All fixed-base operators have agreed to participate in the NATA SMS for Ground Operations. Hydraulic Spill on Passaic Avenue

On October 6th, the Department was called to Passaic Avenue for a fluid spill. A Verizon employee was in the bucket working on the phone lines when the truck's hydraulic system failed and began to leak. The bucket was safely lowered. The Department applied an absorbent material to dyke the runoff and to soak up the fluid. HAZMAT was formally notified and an EPA number was assigned. Chief Joseph Taylor Jr. was in command. Police Officers Paul Bassett and Jeffrey Werner were on the scene. ###

HHFD Visits Students During Fire Prevention Week

The Hasbrouck Heights Fire Department visited local schools for Fire Prevention Week, which was held October 8 through 14, 2006.

Department members met with the students in their schools.

A brief talk was given about matches (80% of home fires are caused by children playing with matches), smoke detectors, home fire drills, etc.

Firefighters put on their turnout gear, including Scott air packs and explained the purpose of each component.

They demonstrated some of their equipment to include infrared cameras.

The students were then escorted outside to see a demonstration and explanation of the fire vehicles.

The Department visits every Heights school during Fire Prevention Week.

This year's fire prevention

theme is: "Prevent Cooking Fires: Watch What You Heat."

During this year's fire safety campaign, firefighters and safety advocates will be spreading the word about the dangers of cooking fires -- most of which result from unattended cooking -- and teaching local residents how to prevent cooking fires from starting in the first place.

According to the latest NFPA research, cooking is the leading cause of home fires. One out of three home fires begins in the kitchen—more than any other place in the home. Cooking fires are also the leading cause of home fire-related injuries.

"Often when we're called to a fire that started in the kitchen, the residents tell us that they only left the kitchen for a few minutes," said Fire Official Arthur Jackson. "Sadly, that's all it takes for a dangerous fire to start. We hope that Fire Prevention Week will help us reach folks in the community before they've suffered a damaging lesson."

Among the safety tips that firefighters and safety advocates will be emphasizing:

- Stay in the kitchen when you are frying, grilling, broiling, or boiling food.
- If you must leave the room, even for a short period of time, turn off the stove.
- When you are simmering, baking, or roasting food, check it regularly, stay in the home, and use a timer to remind you.
- If you have young children, use the stove's back burners whenever possible. Keep children and pets away from the stove.
- When you cook, wear clothing with tight-fitting sleeves.
- Keep potholders, oven mitts, wooden utensils, paper and plastic bags, towels, and anything else that can burn, away from your stovetop.
- Clean up food and grease from burners and stovetops.

Fire Prevention Week is actively supported by fire departments across the country.

This is the 85th year that fire departments have observed Fire Prevention Week, making it the longest running public health and safety observance on record.

Hasbrouck Heights fire officials also urge residents to ensure that smoke alarms are installed on every level of their home and kept working with monthly testing and annual battery replacement.

All smoke alarms should be replaced after 10 years. Each member of the household needs to know the fire escape plan and practice it twice a year. ###

Chemical Spill Evacuates School

On October 3rd, a teacher accidentally spilled a very small amount of mercuric oxide during an experiment in the Biology Lab in the Hasbrouck Heights High/Middle School.

Students in the classroom were immediately moved to an adjoining room.

The Department was called and Captain Patrick Hayes took command of the incident. He pulled the fire alarm to evacuate the school. Students moved to their standard fire drill locations and then moved to the field at the rear of the school.

Due to the fact that this is a chemical, Bergen County HAZMAT was called.

As a precaution, students that were in the Lab at the time were isolated and decontaminated.

A certified contractor cleaned the affected area.

Officials on the scene included: Fire Chief Joseph Taylor Jr., First Assistant Chief Angelo Roccamo, Mayor Ronald R. Jones, OEM/Police Chief Michael Colaneri, Superintendent of Schools Joseph C. Luongo, School Principals Peter G. O'Hare and Edward Bolcar. ###

Fire Alarm at Corpus Christi School

On October 19th, the Department was called to Corpus Christi School due to the smell of something burning.

The school was evacuated to the Church during the alarm.

A team, using infrared cameras, was sent into the school. The cause was determined to be a faulty fluorescent ballast.

Due to unknown factors at the time, and as a precaution, Incident Commander, Captain Patrick Hayes, called for a Hackensack FAST Team to the scene and second alarm.

Wood-Ridge, Little Ferry and Moonachie Fire Departments responded and were on standby. ###

It was Really Spooky and Scary in Woodland Park That Night

Woodland Park was invaded by ghosts, goblins, aliens and assorted scary characters on the evening of October 19, 2006. Over 600 participated in this event.

Halloween in the Park began at 6:00 p.m. and concluded at 9:30 p.m.

Visitors walked down the Haunted Trail to the back parking lot. Every 15 minutes, two hayride trailers took turns collecting riders for the very scary ride to be frightened by a variety of terrifying citizens of the night.

After the horrific experience, they escaped at the Roosevelt Avenue end of the pavilion — where they were treated to refreshments.

The pavilion fireplace was warm and glowing. Tarot card reader Linda Cross delighted participants.

Heights resident, Al DeAngelo, of "Night-Mares Haunted Attractions" in Montvale (www.Night-Mares.com), "set-up" and operated fright stations.

The Recreation Department Advisory Board helped out. Funtime Entertainment provided scary music. The Recreation Department sponsored the event and supplied refreshments.

The first few rides were less scary, so it was recommended that younger children sign up for the earlier time slots. ###

Designing Woman

Ideas For The Home Of Your Dreams

How many times has this happened to you? You're out shopping and you find the perfect drapes for one of your rooms. Perfect color, perfect texture, easy care, and 70% off! Problem is, you can't remember what length or width you need, or how many panels. And the sign says "All sales final." Or you're in Virginia, visiting your sister (GROAN). You put them back and never find anything you like as much.

Fact is, we already have too many numbers to remember today, so you'll have to handle this the old-fashioned way. Write it down.

It might take about a half an hour, but think about the time you'll save by not having to return things that don't fit. Go through each room, measure and record window sizes, height of the ceiling, widths of doorways. Measure for tablecloth sizes, with and without extensions. Measure the outdoor entrances and stairwells to see if large items will fit without having to remove a door or legs. Know how long your couch is, so if you're looking for wall décor, you won't buy something too large or too small. If you're going to be looking for table lamps, measure the height of the table so the lamp isn't too tall or too short for it.

Then write it all down on a sturdy piece of paper, like an index card, cut to whatever shape works for you. Check-book size. Credit card size. Business card size.

If you have one of those laminating thingies, use it. (And if you're enterprising, you can offer to laminate your friends' cards for a buck. Just kidding).

Of course, you can also enter all these measurements into your computer, print out the list, and when it gets ratty from use, print out another one.

And most importantly, have a tape measure in your purse at all times.

You'll never have to pass up a bargain again. Or make extra trips to return stuff. Although...returning stuff does give you another reason to go shopping.

Chimney Safety Tips

Chimney maintenance is vital to your family's safety. The Hasbrouck Heights Fire Department offers these tips:

- Have your chimney inspected and cleaned on a regular basis.
- When possible, burn seasoned woods (dryness of the wood is more important than hard wood versus soft wood).
- Smaller, hotter fires will burn more completely and produce less smoke than larger fires.
- Do not burn cardboard boxes or trash, as they can spark a chimney fire.
- Install stovepipe thermometers, which help monitor flue temperatures where wood stoves are in use, then adjust burning practices as needed. ###

Buy-A-Ribbon Feed The Hungry

As well as "Brightening The Boulevard," this annual appeal has generated thousands of dollars every year to benefit The Center for Food Action.

A $10 contribution buys a bright red ribbon with your name on it, placed along the Boulevard beginning Thanksgiving until Valentine's Day.

This year a banner promoting this annual holiday tradition is scheduled to be placed across The Boulevard for approximately two weeks.

Contributors simply complete the "Buy-A-Ribbon -- Feed The Hungry" form, listing their name, family, memorial, etc., with a limit of up to 30 characters.

Most ribbons are $10, but generous folks can make a $50 donation which provides a special breakfast and traditional dinner for Christmas or Hanukkah for a family in our neighborhood.

Corporate donations of $100 or more will receive a unique red and gold ribbon.

Ribbon placement in Hasbrouck Heights is done by the Knights of Columbus: Msgr. Fitzpatrick Council 7041.

Ribbon placement along Valley Boulevard in Wood-Ridge is done by the Knights of Columbus: St. Anthony's Council 11158.

The ribbon is generously donated by Harvey Jaffe of Designer Dispatch Ribbon and Floral Accessories. ###

2006 Leaf Collection

The DPW will continue the service of curb-side leaf collection.

Leaves may be raked into the street until December 4th.

Leaves may be raked to the curb -- but not within 10 feet of storm drains.

The DPW requests that the leaves be raked off the top of the curb and fully into the street.

It is advised that providing a drainage space between the leaf pile and the curb will allow a better flow of rain water to storm drains.

Leaves may also be bagged in paper sacks or in upright containers. Leaves in plastic bags are not acceptable.

Leaves are accepted at the DPW recycling depot at any time in paper sacks or upright containers. ###

Blessing of The Animals

Photos by Karen Fels

St. John's held a Blessing of the Animals on Sunday, October 1st during the 10 a.m. service.

Everyone was invited to bring their critters to be blessed during the liturgy. St. John's invited their neighbors and friends to participate.

This year they collected items to be given to the Bergen County Animal Shelter.

Items collected were old sheets, towels, and blankets and "special treats" for the dogs and cats living at the shelter. The county provides food for the animals, but not treats such as dog biscuits and animal toys. ###

History of The First United Methodist Church

On June 11, 2006, the Hasbrouck Heights First United Methodist Church rededicated its Sanctuary at 57 Burton Avenue, first dedicated on May 26, 1907. We present a continuing series of their rich history.

Part Six Ethereal Edification

In 1933, when the country was in the depths of The Great Depression, and soon to be thrown into World War II, the Church needed a strong leader, a man of determination, with faith in God, and love for his people. Such a man was the Rev. Paul A. Callender! Son of a Methodist Minister, and brother of four ministers, he was sent to the Church for what was to be the longest and most outstanding charge in Church history. Paul and his wife, Ada, entered into the work of the Church with tireless energy.

One of the first things Paul started was the publication of a monthly (sometimes semi-monthly), news letter, the "Spire" which was mailed to the entire congregation. The "Spire" served as a very effective medium of communication. Not an issue failed to give thanks to some volunteer worker, or to a giver of some gift to the Church.

The Pastor called at the home of every new family in town, inviting them to attend services in the Church. Membership increased from 319 in 1933, to 746 on December 31, 1955 his last year.

In April 1939, a committee was formed to start a Building Fund to raise about $30,000 for additional space for the Sunday School. Many fund-raising events were put on by the various organizations in the Church.

By 1949, a total of $86,000 was pledged or on hand.

World War II had prevented any new building and increased the estimated cost to $110,000. An architect prepared plans; bids were submitted; and, at the Annual Conference in April 1950, contracts were approved for the new building for $108,981.

Ground-breaking took place on May 21, 1950. Over 2,000 hours were donated in a labor of love by the Church men and women to help complete the building. There was painting, cleaning, laying asphalt tile, wood-working, electrical wiring, sanding, varnishing, and installing of all kinds. There were donations of furniture, lamps, rugs, an altar cross, candelabra, vases, stage curtains, etc. A mortgage of $30,000 was obtained in April 1931, from the People's Trust Company to complete payments on the new building; and to repair a stained glass window, redecorate the sanctuary, paint the outside trim, and put a new roof on the Church.

In the spring of 1956, Paul and Ada Callender were sent to Morristown where he became District Superintendent of the Western District.

In June 1956, Forest M. Fuess and his wife Ruth, came to the Church. An outstanding preacher and a forceful, tireless worker, Forest carried on until 1961. He left, as Paul Callender did, for more important work as District Superintendent of the Northern District.

During the five years with Forest Fuess, the original wood shingles on the upper part of the church were replaced with brick veneer. In 1957, the name of the new parish and education building was changed to the Callender Building in honor of Paul A. Callender, under whose leadership and hard work the building was built. In 1960 the outside of the parsonage was renovated and the tower and steeple of the Church were replaced with a redwood tower and a stainless steel steeple.

Dr. Harold N. Smith, District Superintendent of the Northern District, replaced Forest M. Fuess in 1961. In fact, they exchanged positions.

The Church was fortunate to have had three pastors who were District Superintendents: Callender, Fuess, and Smith, who served over 32 successive years. Dr. Smith, a learned and dedicated churchman served well. We furnished a Pastor's Study in the Callender Building for Dr. Smith and, under the supervision of Mrs. Smith, completely renovated the interior of the parsonage. In May 1962, Dr. Smith helped burn the mortgage as we were again out of debt.

The Rev. Alfred L. Beemer and his wife, Ruth, arrived in 1965, from Kearny for five years of devoted service to the Church. A kind and conscientious man, Al Beemer carried on the tradition of his predecessors of hard work and team play to get things accomplished.

The old piano in the Taylor Room, used by the Primary Department and for choir rehearsals, was replaced in 1966.

The new piano was dedicated to the memory of Pearl E. Davenport, who had been Church organist in 1912. Pearl had served as pianist, teacher, and superintendent of the Primary Department of the Sunday School for more than fifty years. This memorial piano led to the establishment of the Memorial Fund in 1967 to honor deceased members.

An extensive renovation program was suggested by Al Beemer in 1967, consisting of a complete overhaul of the sanctuary and repairs and improvements to the grounds and walks outside the Church. It was planned to remove the pews and replace them on new red wall-to-wall carpet, leaving one center aisle and two side aisles.

Also, there were to be all new electric fixtures and new radiators. The old basement social hall was to be completely remodeled, removing the old stage where the Primary Department of the Sunday School once met, replacing it with a printing room, and rooms for choir robe dressing and storage. Fellowship Hall was to get a new drop ceiling, fluorescent lights and decorating. A Renovation Fund was started, with Robb Rice as chairman, to raise $50,000 over the next three years. Pledges were received for $50,268, including $3,000 by Ray Wright, Sr. from scrap paper collections. Ray and a crew of volunteers collected 288-3/4 tons of paper and one ton of rags.

In December 1968, the name of the Church was changed to the First United Methodist Church of Hasbrouck Heights as part of the uniting of the Methodist Church with the Evangelical United Brethren. This also changed the name of the Woman's Society to the United Methodist Women.

In 1996, Mrs. Terrence Dundon donated two ping-pong tables, a pool table, and a movie projector, in memory of her husband. This equipment was placed in the Youth Room, now named the Dan Bailey Room, in memory of this outstanding worker for the Church and its youth.

A commission on Ecumenical Affairs was formed in 1968, to work with other Churches in town for our common interests. In the same year the Official Board became the Administrative Board, and in 1970, the Council on Ministries was formed with Warren Herr as Chairman. They aided social assistance programs of the Church and the town.

In June 1972, the Rev. John Dixon Watt arrived at the Church with his wife June. He entered into the work of the Church, making some changes, such as the formation of a Folk Choir.

This group participated in some Worship services, as an adjunct to the Choir. In his report to the Annual Charge Conference on April 1, 1973, Rev. Watt said: "As we plan for the future, we anticipate new forms of service to match our sense of mission; a week-day nursery school; a Bible luncheon fellowship; an experiment with one Sunday morning service, at a new hour - with monthly evening services; an art-culture committee and a recreation committee to plan projects to enrich our ministry."

The Nursery School started in 1972, at the suggestion of Pastor J.D. Watt and Virginia Wallace.

The school is thriving. It is open to children of all faiths.

The year 1973 brought the national Key 73, ecumenical and evangelical drive of 140 Church denominations to get people to go to Church. We, with other Hasbrouck Heights churches, joined in an effort to put a special edition of Luke-Acts in every home in town.

The September 1973 "Spire" notes "thanks" from Bill Olafson, Building and Grounds Chairman, for the volunteers who helped prepare the Church and grounds for fall reopening. March 1974, saw the First Annual Antique Show and Flea Market, put on by the B&H Circle of the United Methodist Women.

A committee was formed in 1974 to plan a celebration for the 100th anniversary in 1975. Gertrude Manfredi and Henry Murphy were made co-chairpersons. Betty Ardito, a tireless worker in many areas, including Church mailings, had handsome Church tiles made for sale to members. Ruth Eckert supervised the publishing of Church directories containing photos of members.

The worship service on Sunday, September 22, 1974, included the honoring of 18 members with fifty or more years of membership. On Saturday, May 17, 1975, a pageant on the Church's early history, written by Ruth Coyle and directed by Helen Andrews, was presented. Former pastors Callender, Fuess, Smith and Beemer were guests. Each told something of his experience here.

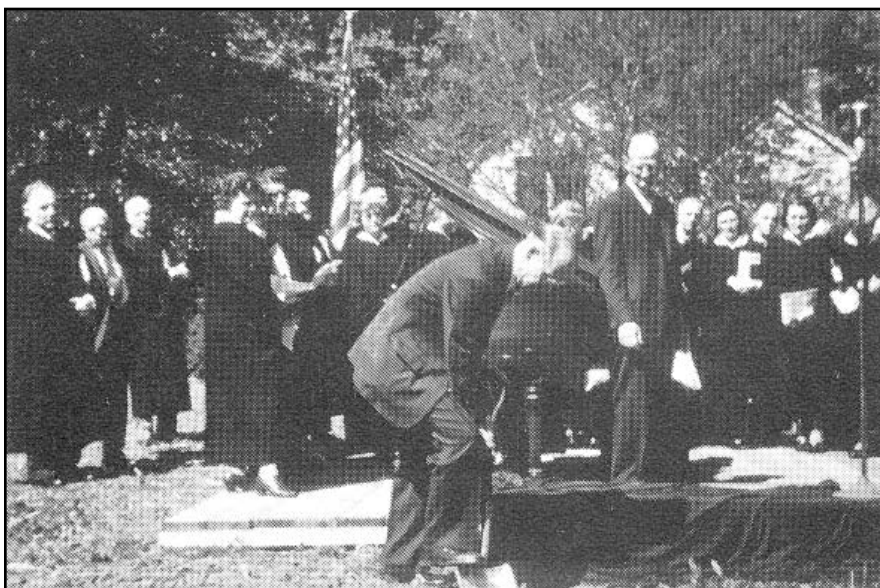

On Sunday, May 18, 1975, our former pastors took part in the morning worship service, before a congregation of 299. After the service, a banquet was held in Fellowship Hall for over 200 guests. Our Home-Coming Weekend ended with a display of murals done by our Church School children and memorabilia assembled by Elbert W. Burr.

Today, as in the past, the Church has been blessed with many hard working, dedicated Christians, who toil quietly behind the scenes to keep the Church alive. A Church must, in order to survive, operate on solid business principles.

We are deeply grateful to the countless men and women for their devoted service. Without the efforts of each individual employing their talents, the organization could not function. After all, a Church is not a building, nor an edifice, nor an institution - it is its people. They are, in essence, the Church!

All Saints Day

By Rev. Raymond M. Holmes
Corpus Christi Church

Within Roman Catholicism the month of November marks the end of the Church's year.

The month of November begins with the celebration of All Saints Day, which is, for Catholics, a holy day.

It is not a grand, spectacular holy day like Christmas or Easter. It is a small, quiet day wherein we are reminded and challenged to live out some profound truths.

It is a day when we profess that "we believe in the communion of the saints." A reminder that we are united not only with each other, but also with all those who have gone before us, as well as all those who will come long after we are gone. A call to unity for a time when the prevailing world message is not "communion" but "division." The message of division is often hidden under the guise of religion, politics, economics, gender, age, and race.

Spiritual men and women, coming from widely different religious affiliations, who speak of genuine mystical experiences of the Divine, all speak of the experience in the same way.

They describe a sudden overwhelming sense that they are one (in communion), with all people, and, with this insight, a feeling of profound peace. We may not be the recipients of a mystical experience, but we can do what we can to be agents of "communion" in our homes, work places, and communities.

Perhaps All Saints Day isn't such a little holy day, after all. ###

Thanksgiving Service

A Thanksgiving Ecumenical Service will be held at St. John the Divine at 4:00 p.m., November 19th. All are invited. ###

Thanksgiving Proclamation, November 29, 1623

TO ALL YE PILGRIMS

Inasmuch as the great Father has given us this year an abundant harvest of Indian corn, wheat, beans, squashes, and garden vegetables, and has made the forests to abound with game and the sea with fish and clams, and inasmuch as He has protected us from the ravages of the savages, has spared us from pestilence and disease, has granted us freedom to worship God according to the dictates of our own conscience; now,

I, your magistrate, do proclaim that all ye Pilgrims, with your wives and little ones, do gather at ye meeting house, on ye hill, between the hours of 9 and 12 in the day time, on Thursday, November ye 29th of the year of our Lord one thousand six hundred and twenty-three, and the third year since ye Pilgrims landed on ye Pilgrim Rock, there to listen to ye pastor, and render thanksgiving to ye Almighty God for all His blessings.

REACH Needs Drivers

REACH is an ecumenical group of volunteers formed more than 15 years ago by interested persons from the churches in Hasbrouck Heights to help our residents by transporting them to and from medical services when no other means of transportation is available.

This service is generally provided Monday through Friday from 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., excluding holidays.

People needing this service should call REACH at 201-441-3350 before 9:00 a.m. on the day of their appointment to request the service.

The inside volunteer receives the requests and provides the driver of the day with names, telephone numbers, time and destinations requested.

The volunteer driver will call the person needing the service to confirm the information provided. The driver will arrange for a return trip while transporting to the destination.

Both the inside volunteers and drivers serve one day at a time on a pre-scheduled basis which approximates once a month.

The churches of Hasbrouck Heights collectively support and encourage this service, together with voluntary contributions from those being helped.

Anyone willing and able to act as either an inside volunteer or driver for this important service to our fellow citizens in Hasbrouck Heights is cordially requested to make their willingness known by calling Marie Grimes at 201-288-2207 or Emma Herr at 201-288-0385.

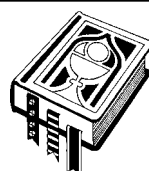

Please help REACH to help our community. ###

Reflections on Thanksgiving

*Reverend Carole J. Suraci
Interfaith Minister
Community United Church of Christ*

Thanksgiving is a time set aside to give thanks for the Harvest in our lives. The first settlers were shown by the Indian Nations that it was a time to celebrate the harvest of their crops before the cold winter months begin. It was a time to celebrate with family and friends the abundance of God's good in their lives.

This year I had the opportunity to attend a Native American Tipi Meeting and heard the songs and chants of full blooded Native American Indians and those whose ancestry is Native American on only one side of their family tree, as well as those who do not have Native American ancestry, but have come to appreciate and return to their spiritual roots through gathering together in prayer for one of their friends.

In this instance it was the son of a man whose heritage is Jewish and who found great strength in communing with Spirit through the aid of Native American ceremony.

The drumming and singing was beautiful as each one who desired to sing their song had an opportunity. There were Mohawk, Sioux, Lakota and several others represented from the Native American Nations.

We watched the fire builder stoke the fire in the middle of the huge tent. There were forty participants and a few children. We stayed awake in the tipi all night singing and listening to the young man for whom the ceremony was held as well as others who gave encouragement him.

The Roche, or minister, guided the ceremony in a free flowing fashion. We all prayed together for the young man to find direction in his life and to find the inner strength which only the Spirit of God can bring.

I was at first surprised to learn that most of the participants were Christian but continue in the practice of their ancestors in the Tipi Meeting and sweat lodge. The songs and music have stayed with me and even though I did not know the words or meaning I endeavored to sing along as many of the verses were repeated. One girl from Cambodia sang a chant singing Alleluia. There was a full blooded Irish American and many other nationalities represented. My friend is originally from South Korea.

This experience opened up a new door for me and I began reading books on Native American culture. I ordered a book from Barnes and Noble and one young man, a college student, asked me if I was studying Native American history. I said no and explained that I had been to a Tipi Meeting. He said he was a "little bit" Native American and proud of it. He said when he finishes college he would like to teach Native Americans at a reservation.

Small world! Who would have believed this young man, white skinned, blue eyes, light brown hair, would be part Native American with a passion to help his ancestry.

America is formed by the beauty of peoples of all races, cultures and heritage, of many languages, songs, foods and customs and forms of worship. We are blessed to live in such a multi-ethnic culture where we can all learn from one another and find the strength and beauty of our Creator in each soul.

One thing I learned was that Native American individual worship is focused on praise and thanksgiving for what they have rather than asking God for what they want.

May we allow God's gratitude, harmony and love to find its place within our heart and mind as we give thanks this Thanksgiving Season. May we be open to one another and realize that we are all God's beloved. We may call God by different names, but God's love never changes.

As each of us desires to let God's love flow through us, through praise and thanksgiving, through song, or act of kindness, we will change the vibration of our community, our country and our world. World peace begins with gratitude and thanksgiving and by letting the peace and strength of God's Spirit abide in our hearts.

Have a blessed and grateful Thanksgiving! ###
